

INTERCLOSE

Meaning: Interclose: to combine or integrate efforts or interests for collaborative advantage or mutual benefit.

1. The two companies decided to interclose their efforts to enhance product development.
2. In the intricate dance of diplomacy, nations often need to interclose their interests for mutual benefit.
3. As the project progressed, the teams found ways to interclose their strategies for a more cohesive outcome.
4. The artists aimed to interclose their different styles, resulting in a unique collaborative masterpiece.
5. To foster innovation, the researchers sought to interclose their findings with those from other disciplines.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interclose>