

INTERCLUSION

Meaning: Interclusion is the act of blending or incorporating various perspectives or elements, particularly in discussions or conversations.

1. The interclusion of various perspectives in the discussion enriched the overall understanding of the topic.
2. In linguistics, interclusion refers to the blending of different languages within a single conversation.
3. The artist's work is characterized by the interclusion of cultural motifs that reflect her diverse background.
4. During the meeting, the interclusion of differing opinions led to a more comprehensive strategy.
5. The interclusion of scientific data and personal narratives created a compelling argument for climate action.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interclusion>