

INTERCOMPARISON

Meaning: Intercomparison refers to the process of comparing different models, techniques, or measurements to evaluate their performance or accuracy relative to one another.

1. The intercomparison of various climate models revealed significant discrepancies in their predictions.
2. Researchers conducted an intercomparison of measurement techniques to ensure the accuracy of their results.
3. An intercomparison study among the laboratories helped standardize the testing protocols for the new drug.
4. The intercomparison of satellite data from different missions enhanced the understanding of atmospheric changes.
5. Policy makers relied on the intercomparison of economic models to formulate effective strategies for growth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intercomparison>