

INTERCONNECTION

Meaning: Interconnection refers to the state of being connected with one another, particularly in terms of systems, ecosystems, or technologies, emphasizing the relationships and interactions between them.

1. The interconnection of various ecosystems highlights the importance of biodiversity.
2. In today's digital age, the interconnection of devices has transformed how we communicate.
3. Scientists are studying the interconnection between climate change and global health issues.
4. The interconnection of historical events helped shape the nation's cultural identity.
5. Strong interconnection among team members can lead to more innovative solutions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interconnection>