

INTERDEPENDENCY

Meaning: Interdependency refers to the mutual reliance and interconnectedness between entities, such as nations or species, where each depends on the other for support or survival.

1. The interdependency of global economies requires nations to work collaboratively for mutual benefit.
2. In nature, the interdependency among species illustrates the delicate balance of ecosystems.
3. The interdependency of technology and society has transformed the way we communicate and interact.
4. Understanding the interdependency of various departments can enhance a company's overall efficiency.
5. The interdependency of human relationships fosters a sense of community and shared responsibility.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interdependency>