

INTERDICTION

Meaning: Interdiction is a legal prohibition or restriction, often imposed by authority, against certain actions or activities.

1. The government imposed an interdiction on the import of certain agricultural products to protect local farmers.
2. His actions were in direct violation of the interdiction set by the court, leading to serious consequences.
3. The environmental group called for an interdiction against the construction project that threatened the wetlands.
4. In response to the ongoing crisis, the city enacted an interdiction to control the spread of misinformation.
5. The military's interdiction of enemy supply lines significantly weakened their operational capabilities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interdiction>