

INTERDICTORY

Meaning: Interdictory refers to serving as a legal prohibition or restriction, particularly in preventing certain actions or developments.

1. The court issued an interdictory order to prevent any further development on the disputed land.
2. Her interdictory stance on the proposal reflected her strong commitment to environmental preservation.
3. The interdictory measures were implemented to halt the ongoing violation of the regulations.
4. In light of the interdictory findings, the organization faced significant legal challenges ahead.
5. The interdictory nature of the injunction surprised many who believed the project would proceed without delay.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interdictory>