

INTERLEAF

Meaning: Interleaf (verb): to insert or alternate pages or sections of a document with different content, such as illustrations or notes, to enhance visual appeal or clarity.

1. The designer decided to interleaf the pages of the book with vibrant illustrations.
2. For improved readability, the editor suggested to interleaf the text with informative side notes.
3. The artist chose to interleaf different materials in her collage to create a unique texture.
4. In the printing process, it's common to interleaf sheets of paper to prevent smudging.
5. The software allows users to interleaf documents seamlessly, enhancing their overall presentation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interleaf>