

INTERLOPER

Meaning: INTERLOPER: a person who intrudes into a situation or place where they are unwelcome or not invited.

1. The unexpected arrival of the interloper at the party made everyone feel uneasy.
2. He was labeled an interloper for trying to influence the negotiations without being invited.
3. The artist considered herself an interloper in the traditional gallery scene, challenging its conventions.
4. As an interloper in their close-knit community, she struggled to find her place among the locals.
5. The interloper's presence sparked a heated debate about privacy and trust within the group.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interloper>