

INTERMOBILITY

Meaning: Intermobility refers to the seamless integration and connectivity of transportation systems between different regions, such as urban and rural areas, to facilitate movement and enhance economic opportunities.

1. Intermobility between urban and rural areas can enhance economic opportunities for both regions.
2. The concept of intermobility is becoming increasingly important in discussions about sustainable transportation.
3. Innovative intermobility solutions can help reduce traffic congestion and improve air quality in cities.
4. The intermobility of various transport modes allows for a more seamless travel experience for commuters.
5. Investing in intermobility infrastructure is essential for supporting a growing population in metropolitan areas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intermobility>