

INTERNECION

Meaning: Internecion refers to a destructive conflict or struggle that results in mutual ruin or significant loss, particularly among the parties involved.

1. The ancient battle led to an internecion that decimated both armies.
2. In the course of their feud, the two clans experienced an internecion that left them nearly extinct.
3. The internecion between rival factions created a power vacuum that threatened the stability of the region.
4. Scholars debated whether the internecion was a necessary evil or a tragic consequence of human conflict.
5. The community was left in shock after witnessing the internecion that tore apart families and friendships.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/internecion>