

INTERNECTION

Meaning: Interconnection refers to the state of being connected or linked together, particularly in the context of systems, networks, or ecosystems.

1. The interconnection of various ecosystems highlights the delicate balance of nature.
2. Advancements in technology have enhanced the interconnection between devices and users globally.
3. Understanding the interconnection of cultural influences can deepen our appreciation of art.
4. The interconnection of social issues often complicates efforts to create effective solutions.
5. Researchers are studying the interconnection of mental health and physical well-being in their latest studies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/internection>