

INTEROCULAR

Meaning: Interocular refers to the distance or space between the eyes, often considered in contexts related to vision and perception.

1. The interocular distance between her eyes gave her an expressive gaze.
2. In the study of visual perception, interocular disparity plays a crucial role in depth perception.
3. The optometrist measured the interocular distance to ensure the correct fit for her new glasses.
4. Researchers found that variations in interocular alignment can affect binocular vision.
5. During the eye exam, the doctor explained the importance of interocular balance for optimal vision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interocular>