INTEROPERCULUM

Meaning: Interoperculum is a bony structure located in the head of many fish species, serving as a key anatomical landmark in the identification of different fish families.

1. The interoperculum is a bony structure found in many fish species.
2. In anatomical studies, the interoperculum serves as an important landmark for identifying various fish families.
3. Researchers discovered that the shape of the interoperculum can influence the feeding mechanics of certain fish.
4. The interoperculum articulates with other bones in the skull to provide support and protection.
5. During dissection, the interoperculum was clearly visible, revealing insights into the fish's respiratory system.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interoperculum