

INTERPELLATION

Meaning: Interpellation is a formal inquiry or questioning by a member of a legislative body directed at a government official, typically aimed at holding them accountable for their actions or policies.

1. The politician's interpellation of the minister sparked a heated debate in the assembly.
2. During the parliamentary session, the opposition's interpellation aimed to hold the government accountable for its policies.
3. Her interpellation regarding the recent budget cuts revealed significant public discontent.
4. The speaker was caught off guard by the sudden interpellation from an unexpected member of the parliament.
5. In response to the interpellation, the minister provided a detailed explanation of the government's stance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interpellation>