

INTERPOSAL

Meaning: Interposal refers to the act of placing something, such as an argument or policy, between two parties or elements in a discussion or legal context.

1. The interposal of the new policy has sparked a heated debate among the stakeholders.
2. In legal contexts, interposal can refer to the act of placing an argument between two parties.
3. The artist's interposal of color and texture created a striking visual contrast in the painting.
4. During the negotiation, the interposal of a mediator helped to ease tensions and facilitate communication.
5. Her interposal in the conversation was both unexpected and welcomed by the group.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interposal>