

INTERROGATIVE

Meaning: Interrogative (adjective): relating to or denoting a type of sentence or clause that asks a question.

1. An interrogative sentence typically begins with a question word.
2. In English, interrogative forms often involve subject-verb inversion.
3. Teachers often emphasize the importance of using interrogative sentences to encourage critical thinking.
4. The interrogative mood can be used to express doubt or uncertainty in a statement.
5. Students are encouraged to practice forming interrogative sentences to improve their communication skills.
6. The teacher explained that an interrogative sentence is used to ask questions.
7. In English grammar, interrogative forms often begin with words like who, what, or where.
8. The children practiced converting declarative sentences into interrogative ones during class.
9. Interrogative intonation can change the meaning of a statement, making it sound like a question.
10. Understanding interrogative structures is essential for effective communication and questioning.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interrogative>