

INTERROGATIVELY

Meaning: Interrogatively: in a manner that expresses a question or seeks information.

1. She looked at him interrogatively, waiting for an explanation.
2. The detective raised an eyebrow and asked interrogatively if he had an alibi.
3. He tilted his head interrogatively, unsure of what she meant by her cryptic statement.
4. The teacher spoke interrogatively, encouraging her students to think critically about the topic.
5. She answered the question interrogatively, as if she were seeking clarification rather than providing it.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interrogatively>