

INTERROGATOR

Meaning: INTERROGATOR: A person who formally questions someone, often in a forceful or intense manner, to obtain information or confessions.

1. The interrogator leaned in closer, demanding answers with a sharp gaze.
2. In the dimly lit room, the interrogator employed various psychological tactics to extract information.
3. Despite the intense pressure, the suspect remained calm under the interrogator's relentless questioning.
4. The skilled interrogator was known for his ability to read body language and detect lies.
5. After hours of interrogation, the interrogator finally found a breakthrough in the case.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interrogator>