

INTERRUPTION

Meaning: Interruption: a break or pause in the continuity of an activity or event, often causing disruption or confusion.

1. The sudden interruption of the meeting left everyone feeling confused and uncertain.
2. Her phone rang at the worst possible moment, causing a significant interruption in his presentation.
3. Despite the interruption from the loud construction outside, she managed to concentrate on her work.
4. An interruption in service can be frustrating, especially when deadlines are approaching.
5. He apologized for the interruption, but the news he brought was too important to wait.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interruption>