

INTERVIEW

Meaning: An interview is a formal conversation in which one party asks questions to gather information, typically for the purpose of assessing a candidate for a job or position.

1. She prepared thoroughly for the job interview by researching the company's values and mission.
2. During the interview, the candidate showcased her skills and experience with confidence and poise.
3. The reporter conducted an exclusive interview with the author about her latest book release.
4. After the interview, he felt optimistic about the possibility of landing the position.
5. They scheduled a follow-up interview to discuss the project in more detail.
6. The interview process for the job was more challenging than I expected.
7. She prepared extensively for the interview, researching the company and rehearsing her answers.
8. After the interview, he felt confident about his chances of landing the position.
9. The reporter conducted an exclusive interview with the celebrity about her upcoming film.
10. During the interview, the panel asked insightful questions that really made her think.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/interview>