

INTERVISIT

Meaning: Intervisit (verb): to visit each other, especially between two parties or nations, for the purpose of fostering mutual understanding or cultural exchange.

1. The two countries agreed to intervisit each other's cultural sites to promote understanding.
2. After months of planning, the sister cities finally set a date for their intervisit.
3. During the intervisit, students exchanged ideas and experiences to enhance their learning.
4. The intervisit program fostered closer ties between the universities involved.
5. During their intervisit, the delegates shared best practices in environmental sustainability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intervisit>