

INTERVOLUTION

Meaning: Intervolution refers to the intricate interrelationship and mutual influence between different entities, such as species or ideas, within a system or context.

1. The concept of intervolution in ecological systems illustrates how different species adapt through complex interactions.
2. Philosophers often debate the intervolution of ideas and beliefs across cultures throughout history.
3. In the study of linguistics, intervolution can refer to the way languages influence and reshape one another over time.
4. The artist's work highlights the intervolution of personal experience and collective memory in shaping identity.
5. Scientists are exploring the intervolution of technology and society as a means to understand contemporary issues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intervolution>