

INTIMIDATORY

Meaning: Intimidatory: causing fear or apprehension, often used to manipulate or control others.

1. The manager's intimidatory tactics demoralized the entire team.
2. She found his intimidatory stance unsettling during the negotiation.
3. The intimidatory behavior displayed by the bully left the younger students frightened.
4. In an intimidatory environment, employees may feel discouraged from expressing their ideas.
5. The film portrayed a society governed by intimidatory control and fear.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intimidatory>