

INTOLERABILITY

Meaning: Intolerability refers to the quality or state of being unacceptable or unbearable, often prompting a response or action.

1. The intolarability of the situation prompted immediate action from the authorities.
2. Many citizens expressed their concerns about the intolarability of rising crime rates in their neighborhoods.
3. His intolarability to criticism made it difficult for him to work collaboratively with his team.
4. The intolarability of the conditions in the overcrowded facility sparked public outrage.
5. She found the intolarability of discrimination in any form to be unacceptable in a modern society.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intolerability>