

INTOLERABLE

Meaning: Intolerable refers to something that is unbearable or excessively disruptive, causing significant discomfort or distress.

1. The noise from the construction site was becoming intolerable, disrupting our peace every day.
2. Her intolerable attitude during the meeting made it difficult for anyone to voice their opinions.
3. Many found his disregard for others' feelings simply intolerable and chose to distance themselves.
4. The heatwave made the summer days feel almost intolerable, pushing everyone to seek refuge indoors.
5. After years of suffering in silence, she finally decided that the intolerable criticism had to stop.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intolerable>