

INTOLERANT

Meaning: INTOLERANT: unwilling to accept or respect differing opinions, beliefs, or behaviors.

1. Her intolerant attitude towards differing opinions made it difficult for others to engage in meaningful discussions.
2. The intolerant nature of the regime suppressed all forms of dissent and free expression.
3. He was often criticized for being intolerant of lifestyles that deviated from his own.
4. The community struggled to foster unity in the face of intolerant behaviors among its members.
5. Intolerant remarks can perpetuate division and hostility within society.
6. His intolerant views on different cultures often led to heated debates.
7. The intolerant behavior of some individuals can create a hostile environment.
8. She was often criticized for her intolerant attitude towards differing opinions.
9. Being intolerant of others' beliefs can hinder meaningful conversations.
10. The community worked hard to combat the intolerant ideology that had arisen.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intolerant>