

INTOLERATED

Meaning: Intolerated means to have allowed or accepted something undesirable or unacceptable to continue without intervention.

1. The community intoleraed any form of discrimination against its members.
2. After many complaints, the school finally took action against the behavior that had been intoleraed for too long.
3. His blatant disrespect was something that she could no longer tolerate; it was time to set boundaries on what she intoleraed.
4. The political climate became so hostile that differing opinions were no longer intoleraed.
5. She realized that in order to be happy, she needed to distance herself from environments where negativity was intoleraed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intolerated>