

INTOLERATING

Meaning: INTOLERATING: The act of enduring or accepting something unpleasant or undesirable, often to a degree that may provoke a reaction or change.

1. Intolerating injustice in any form can lead to significant social change.
2. She found herself intolerating the constant negativity from her coworkers.
3. The community began to lose its patience, intolerating the repeated disruptions.
4. He realized that intolerating the small annoyances was affecting his mental health.
5. Intolerating disrespectful behavior is essential for fostering a positive environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intolerating>