

INTOLERATION

Meaning: Intoleration refers to a lack of acceptance or willingness to endure differing beliefs, opinions, or practices.

1. The community's intoleration towards differing beliefs led to increased tensions.
2. Her intoleration of any form of discrimination made her a strong advocate for equality.
3. The intoleration of dissenting opinions in the workplace stifled creativity and innovation.
4. His intoleration for injustice fueled his passion for activism.
5. They were shocked by the intoleration exhibited during the debate, which overshadowed the exchange of ideas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intoleration>