

INTRAFOLIACEOUS

Meaning: INTRAFOLIACEOUS: situated or occurring within the leaves of a plant, particularly relating to structures involved in reproduction.

1. The botanist explained that intrafoliaceous structures are crucial for the plant's reproductive process.
2. During the research, the team discovered intrafoliaceous formations that had never been documented before.
3. The artist was inspired by the intrafoliaceous patterns found in the leaves of tropical plants.
4. Intrafoliaceous growth can sometimes lead to confusion in identification among plant species.
5. In some ferns, intrafoliaceous adaptations are essential for capturing sunlight efficiently.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intrafoliaceous>