

INTRAVENOUS

Meaning: Intravenous: administered or occurring within a vein, typically referring to the delivery of fluids or medications directly into the bloodstream.

1. The doctor recommended an intravenous infusion to ensure the medication was delivered quickly.
2. Patients receiving chemotherapy often require intravenous therapy to manage side effects.
3. During the emergency, the paramedics administered intravenous fluids to stabilize the patient.
4. Intravenous access is crucial for delivering certain medications that cannot be given orally.
5. The nurse carefully monitored the intravenous line to prevent any complications.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intravenous>