

INTRENCHMENT

Meaning: Intrenchment refers to the establishment or reinforcement of a position, policy, or defensive structure that is difficult to change or overcome.

1. The intrenchment of the company's policies made it difficult for employees to voice their concerns.
2. During the war, the soldiers took refuge in an intrenchment that provided them with strategic advantages.
3. The intrenchment of traditional beliefs in the community often hindered progressive change.
4. His intrenchment in outdated practices prevented the business from adapting to modern trends.
5. They sought to challenge the intrenchment of systemic barriers in education and employment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intrenchment>