

INTRIGUED

Meaning: Intrigued means having a strong curiosity or interest in something, often due to its mysterious or compelling nature.

1. She was intrigued by the mysterious letter that had arrived in the mail.
2. The documentary was so well made that it left the entire audience feeling intrigued.
3. As he explored the ancient ruins, he became increasingly intrigued by their history.
4. Her unconventional approach to problem-solving intrigued her colleagues and sparked lively discussions.
5. He found himself intrigued by her perspective on life, which was so different from his own.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/intrigued>