

INTRODUCTIVE

Meaning: Introductive: serving to introduce or provide a preliminary overview of a subject or event.

1. The introductory remarks set the tone for the entire conference.
2. In the meeting, she provided an introductory overview of the project's objectives.
3. His introductory comments helped the audience understand the context of the discussion.
4. The teacher gave an introductory lesson that outlined the key concepts of the course.
5. An introductory chapter in the book helps readers grasp the main themes before diving deeper.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/introductive>