

INUNDATING

Meaning: Inundating: overwhelming or flooding with a large quantity of something, such as water or information.

1. The heavy rains began inundating the low-lying areas, causing widespread flooding.
2. She felt overwhelmed by the inundating flow of emails that arrived each morning.
3. The charity was inundating its volunteers with requests for help following the disaster.
4. Inundating the market with new products can sometimes confuse consumers rather than attract them.
5. The team was inundating their social media followers with updates about the upcoming event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inundating>