

INUREMENT

Meaning: Inurement refers to the process of becoming accustomed to or habituated to certain conditions or experiences, often leading to a change in perspective or resilience.

1. Inurement to the harsh realities of life can foster resilience in individuals.
2. The constant exposure to different cultures led to an inurement that enriched her perspective.
3. His inurement to pain made him a formidable competitor in the boxing ring.
4. Through inurement, the soldiers learned to cope with the pressures of combat.
5. The long hours of training resulted in an inurement that prepared the team for any challenge.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inurement>