

INVALID

Meaning: Invalid: not valid; null and void; having no legal or official force or effect.

1. The referee declared the goal invalid due to an offside violation.
2. Her application was deemed invalid because it was submitted past the deadline.
3. He realized too late that his argument was based on an invalid assumption.
4. The software produced an error message indicating that the entered code was invalid.
5. They found the contract to be invalid after discovering it was not signed by both parties.
6. The ticket was deemed invalid due to the expiration date being long past.
7. She received an error message stating that her login credentials were invalid.
8. His argument was dismissed as invalid because it lacked sufficient evidence.
9. The contract was ruled invalid by the court because of a lack of signatures.
10. They found the warranty to be invalid, as it had not been activated properly.
11. The ticket you purchased is invalid, and you will need to buy a new one.
12. Her argument was based on an invalid assumption that was easily disproven.
13. The software rejected the password as invalid after multiple failed attempts.
14. He felt frustrated when he realized his credit card had expired and was therefore invalid.
15. To avoid confusion, please ensure that all entries are marked as valid or invalid.
16. The ticket was deemed invalid because it had expired.
17. He received an error message indicating that his password was invalid.
18. Her attempt to register online was rejected due to invalid input.
19. The court ruled that the contract was invalid due to a lack of signatures.
20. I realized my identification was invalid when I tried to enter the building.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/invalid>