

INVALIDNESS

Meaning: Invalidness refers to the quality or state of being invalid, lacking soundness, or being logically unsound or untrustworthy.

1. The invalidness of the argument led to its rejection in the debate.
2. Her invalidness was highlighted in the report, raising questions about its credibility.
3. Despite the invalidness of the data, the researchers chose to publish their findings.
4. The court ruled that the contract's invalidness rendered it unenforceable.
5. Understanding the concept of invalidness is crucial for interpreting legal documents accurately.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/invalidness>