

INVENOM

Meaning: Invemon (verb): to poison or taint, causing harm or incapacitation, either physically or emotionally.

1. The snake's bite can invemon its prey, leaving them paralyzed and vulnerable.
2. She felt a surge of anger that seemed to invemon her thoughts, clouding her judgment.
3. The villain's plan was to invemon the city's water supply to cause chaos and fear.
4. His harsh words were meant to invemon her spirit, but she resolved to rise above them.
5. The toxic atmosphere of negativity began to invemon the once vibrant community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/invenom>