

INVIOUS

Meaning: Invidious: likely to arouse resentment or anger in others, often due to jealousy or envy.

1. His success was often met with invidious remarks from those who envied him.
2. The invidious comparisons between the two candidates only served to deepen the divide among their supporters.
3. She was aware that her lavish lifestyle could provoke invidious feelings among her peers.
4. Invidious remarks can easily poison friendships if not addressed with care.
5. The invidious nature of gossip can undermine the reputation of even the most well-liked individuals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/invious>