

INVITATION

Meaning: An invitation is a written or verbal request inviting someone to attend an event or participate in an activity.

1. The invitation to the wedding arrived in the mail just last week.
2. She felt honored to receive an invitation to speak at the conference.
3. Despite the short notice, he was thrilled to get an invitation to the exclusive gala.
4. The beautifully crafted invitation set the tone for the elegant dinner party.
5. They decided to decline the invitation, as they had prior commitments that evening.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/invitation>