

INVOLUCRED

Meaning: Involucred refers to having bracts or leaves that are arranged in a whorled or encircling pattern around a flower or inflorescence.

1. The flower's petals were involucred, creating a beautiful and intricate display.
2. In the botanical study, the involucred bracts were noted for their unique arrangement.
3. The artist's painting featured an involucred composition that drew the viewer's eye.
4. The scientist explained how the involucred structure of the plant aids in pollination.
5. During the lecture, we learned about the involucred nature of certain seed pods.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/involucred>