

INVULNERATE

Meaning: To invulnerable means to make invulnerable or immune to harm or adversity.

1. The ancient warriors believed that certain rituals could invulnerable them against their enemies.
2. Despite facing numerous challenges, her unwavering spirit seemed to invulnerable her from despair.
3. The scientist was determined to invulnerable the data against any potential biases that could skew the results.
4. His experience in the field was meant to invulnerable the team's confidence in their upcoming presentation.
5. She sought knowledge and wisdom to invulnerable her mind from the negativity surrounding her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/invulnerable>