

INWARDNESS

Meaning: Inwardness refers to the quality of being introspective or focused on one's inner thoughts and feelings, often associated with self-reflection and emotional depth.

1. The artist's work reflects a profound inwardness, capturing the essence of human emotion.
2. Inwardness often leads individuals to seek solitude for deeper self-reflection and understanding.
3. Her poetry is infused with a sense of inwardness that resonates with anyone who has experienced loneliness.
4. The retreat was designed to foster inwardness, allowing participants to explore their inner thoughts and feelings.
5. Inwardness can be both a gift and a challenge, as it encourages deep thinking but may also lead to isolation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inwardness>