

IREFUL

Meaning: IREFUL (adjective): characterized by intense anger or rage.

1. The politician's speech was full of ireful accusations against his opponents.
2. Her ireful response to the criticism left everyone in the room silent.
3. He had an ireful glare that could silence even the loudest of crowds.
4. The teacher's ireful reaction to the disruption made the students think twice about their behavior.
5. Despite her ireful tone, he could see the underlying pain in her eyes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ireful>