

IRIDIZE

Meaning: To iridize means to display a spectrum of colors or to exhibit iridescence, often seen as shimmering or changing hues in light.

1. The soap bubble began to iridize as it caught the sunlight, displaying a spectrum of colors.
2. Her dress iridized in the evening light, shimmering with hints of blue and green.
3. The artist used a special technique to iridize the glass, giving it an ethereal quality.
4. As the oil slick spread over the water, it began to iridize, creating a mesmerizing display.
5. The peacock's feathers iridized beautifully, captivating all who passed by.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/iridize>