

IRISED

Meaning: 'IriSed' refers to the display or effect of vibrant, shifting colors, resembling the appearance of an iris, often enhanced by light.

1. Her eyes irised with a stunning array of colors as the sunlight hit them just right.
2. The artist used a technique that made the painting appear to iris in the light, adding depth to the scene.
3. As the camera focused, the lens irised, capturing every detail in sharp clarity.
4. The flowers in the garden irised beautifully, displaying vibrant hues that mesmerized onlookers.
5. With each passing moment, her emotions irised, revealing the complexity of her thoughts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irised>