

IRK

Meaning: To irk means to annoy or irritate someone.

1. His constant interruptions began to irk her during the important meeting.
2. She felt a strong urge to irk him back after he made that sarcastic comment.
3. It doesn't take much to irk my brother; even the slightest noise can set him off.
4. The long wait at the airport started to irk all the passengers waiting for their flights.
5. Her habit of leaving the dishes unwashed would eventually irk anyone sharing the apartment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/irk>