

IRON-CASED

Meaning: Iron-cased: encased or protected by a layer of iron, providing durability and resistance to damage.

1. The museum displayed an iron-cased relic from the ancient civilization.
2. His iron-cased toolbox withstood years of wear and tear.
3. The artist used an iron-cased frame to give her sculpture a sturdy foundation.
4. They marveled at the craftsmanship of the iron-cased door, which had survived centuries.
5. The ship was equipped with iron-cased hulls to withstand harsh ocean conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/iron-cased>